HAITI: SIXTH FOLLOW-UP REPORT

I. INTRODUCTION

1. This is the Jurisdiction's sixth follow-up report. Haiti has not shown any concrete progress since the November 2012 Plenary and as a result, based on the current status of progress, it is recommended that the country be advanced to the second stage of Enhanced follow-up with a high level mission being arranged to the jurisdiction.
2. Haiti received ratings of PC or NC on fourteen (14) of the sixteen (16) Core and Key Recommendations as follows:

Table 1: Ratings for Core and Key Recommendations

Rec.	1	3	4	5	10	13	23	26	35	36	40	I	II	III	IV	V
Rating	NC	PC	PC	NC	LC	NC	NC	PC	NC	LC	PC	NC	NC	NC	NC	NC

3. With regard to the other non-core or key Recommendations, Haiti was rated partially compliant and non-compliant, as follows:

Table 2: 'Other' Recommendations rated as PC and NC

Partially Compliant	Non-Compliant
R.2 (Money laundering offence )	R.6 (Politically exposed persons)
R.15 (Internal controls and compliance)	R.7 (Correspondent banking)
R.18 (Shell banks)	R.8 (New Technologies and non-face-to-face banking )
R.27 (Law enforcement authorities)	R.9 (Third parties and business introducers)
R.28 (Powers of competent authorities)	R.12 (DNFBPs 6, 8-11)
R.29 (Supervisors)	R.16 (DNFBPs 13-15 & 21)
R.31 (National cooperation)	R.17 ( Sanctions)
R.38 (Mutual legal assistance on confiscation an freezing)	R.20 (Other non-financial businesses and professions and secure transaction techniques)
SR.IX (Reporting/communication of cross border transactions.	R.21 (Special attention for higher risk countries)
	R.22 (Foreign Branches and subsidiaries)
	R.24 (DNFBPs regulation supervision and monitoring)
	R.25 (Guidelines and feedback)
	R.30 (Resources, integrity and training)
	R.32 (Statistics)
	R.33 (Legal persons – beneficial owners)
	SR.VI AML/CFT requirements for money/value transfer services
	SR.VII (Wire transfer rules)
	SR.VIII (Non-profit organizations)

4. The following financial information table is intended to assist in providing insight into the level of risk in the main financial sector in Haiti.

Table 3: Size and integration of Haiti's financial sector (as at April 2013)

		Banks	Other credit institutions	Securities	Insurance	Total
Number of institutions	Total	9	198	2	12	221
Assets	US $	4,173,797,147.00	263,647,409.42	NA	NA	4,437,444,556.42
Deposits	Total : US $	3,487,254,310.00	108,761,859.83	NA	NA	3,596,016,169.83
	% Non-resident	1.27%	NA	NA	NA	1.27%
International Links	% Foreign-owned	NA	N/A	NA	NA	N/A
	# Subsidiaries Abroad	2	N/A	N/A	N/A	2

**these amounts concern only 196 microfinance institutions of which only 100 are regulated. It is also worthwhile noting that there are more than 1000 informal microstructures (village banks, mutual solidarity structures, etc.) financing the activities of the unbanked populations.

II. SUMMARY OF PROGRESS MADE BY HAITI

5. In April 2013 Haiti's Senate voted on the draft Bill on corruption. That bill is now before the Chamber of Deputies.

Core Recommendations & Key Recommendations

6. The status of Haiti's implementation of the Core and Key Recommendations remain exactly as was reported in the 5th follow-up report. In this regard, all 16 Recommendations continue to be outstanding pending the enactment of the Bill on Money Laundering and Financing of Terrorism, which Haiti has proffered as a cure for many of the deficiencies noted in its DAR.
7. As for the implementation of the existing measures, Since May 2013, the UCREF, CNLBA and the Central Bank conducted training and facilitated a forum on STR and CTR awareness for compliance officers from banks and other reporting entities.

III. CONCLUSION

8. The May 2013 Managua Plenary moved Haiti to the first step in enhanced follow-up with a letter from the CFATF Chairman being sent to Haiti's Honourable Minister of Justice and Public Safety on July 4, 2013.
9. Haiti has shown no improvement for this reporting period and the status of the Bill on ML and TF which was voted on by the Senate since February 28, 2013, is unknown as it continues to await passage in the Chamber of Deputies.

10. Based on the current status of progress, it is recommended that Haiti be advanced to the second stage of Enhanced follow-up and a high level mission being undertaken to Haiti for the following reasons:
- a) The period of time that has elapsed since the adoption of the DAR;
  - b) The extremely slow pace of reform since the adoption of the DAR;
  - c) The lack of positive progress since the convening of the new Haitian government;
  - d) The November 2012 Plenary decision that Haiti, being a country in the Expedited follow-up process, rectify outstanding deficiencies with its Core and Key Recommendations by November 2013. This decision was reaffirmed at the May 2013 Plenary and by the Special Ministerial Meeting of August 23, 2013.

Forty Recommendations	Rating	Summary of factors underlying rating <sup>1</sup>	Recommended Actions	Undertaken Actions
LEGAL SYSTEMS
I. Money laundering offence	NC	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>The criminalization of money laundering does not cover all of the serious offences listed by the FATF, such as corruption, smuggling, arms exports, counterfeiting, migrant smuggling, sexual exploitation, and terrorist financing.</li> <li>The criminal law policy on combating money laundering and terrorist financing is currently ineffective.</li> </ul>	i. Adopt a criminal law policy with regard to serious offences that takes account more systematically of the laundering of the proceeds from the offences being prosecuted, by raising the awareness of prosecutors, investigative magistrates, and the police.	This recommendation is addressed in the Bill on Money Laundering and Financing of Terrorism. This Bill was voted by the Senate on February 28th, 2013 and had been twice submitted to the general assembly of the Lower Chamber. Yet, the bill is still pending for vote.
			ii. Take a census of the cases where money laundering is considered from the outset of the preliminary investigation or when criminal proceedings are started.	Authorities are fully aware of the need to collect statistics regarding AML crimes. On the date of 19 th of August 2013, a person was appointed, under the scope of the Ministry of Justice, as the general coordinator of the public prosecutor's offices at a national level. This shall help in keeping up-to-date the number of cases pertained to money laundering.
			iii. In a subsidiary move, provide that, where the proceeds of crime are derived from conduct that occurred in another country, which is not an offence in that other country, but which would have constituted an offence in Haiti, this constitutes a money laundering offence in Haiti.	This recommendation is addressed in the Bill on Money Laundering and Financing of Terrorism. This Bill was voted by the Senate on February 28th, 2013 and had been twice submitted to the general assembly of the Lower Chamber. Yet, the bill is still pending for vote.

2. Money laundering offence – mental element and corporate liability	PC	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>The requirements for invoking the criminal liability of legal persons are too restrictive, notwithstanding the inherent weaknesses of the predicate offences and the offence of money laundering (see Recommendation I).</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Reword the sentence about the liability of legal persons and lower the threshold for invoking legal persons' liability by removing the reference to the commission of an offence by a structure or a representative of the legal person.</li> </ul>	The article on the liability of legal persons has been revised in the Bill on money laundering and terrorist financing. This Bill was voted by the Senate on February 28th, 2013 and had been twice submitted to the general assembly of the Lower Chamber. Yet, the bill is still pending for vote.
3. Confiscation and provisional measures	PC	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>System is ineffective due to confusion in the implementation and management of conservatory measures and seizures.</li> </ul>	i. Ensure that the funds seized by the competent authorities (Police, Customs) are managed by those same authorities pending a final court decision on whether the funds are to be released or confiscated by the State.	This recommendation is addressed in the Bill on Money Laundering and Financing of Terrorism. This Bill was voted by the Senate on February 28th, 2013 and had been twice submitted to the general assembly of the Lower Chamber. Yet, the bill is still pending for vote.
			ii. Require courts, Government agencies, and departments concerned to keep accurate statistics about the conservatory measures taken and confiscations made by each of them. One authority should be designated to centralize the statistics.	CNLBA initiated an intersectoral monitoring committee, now quarterly meetings are set out. As results following agencies: BAFE, BAFOS, BRH, AGD, &amp; UCREF do provide statistics.
PREVENTIVE MEASURES
4. Secrecy laws consistent with the Recommendations	PC	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Bank secrecy too broad in scope and excessively restrictive, thus undermining the effectiveness of the anti-money laundering mechanism</li> <li>Excessive access to bank information by UCREF, apt to result in defiance by informant entities and create legal risks harmful to judicial proceedings</li> </ul>	Revise the obligations pertaining to bank secrecy so that the current restrictions, which pose a potential impediment to the fight against money laundering (scope and depth of banking supervision, domestic and international cooperation), are lifted. In addition, ensure that UCREF's practices regarding access to banking information are performed in full compliance with the letter and spirit of the law of 2001	The obligations pertaining to bank secrecy were revised and are reflected in Article 179 of the law governing banks and other financial institutions. Since 2008, UCREF ensures to collect all the necessary information through the financial institution via officials (Managing directors and/or compliance officers). Information is exchanged only by registered mail. To ensure that the information collected is treated with full confidentiality requirements, training sessions were held by OTA. In addition, meetings were held with banks more particularly around this issue.

5. Customer due diligence	NC	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Too limited scope of the ban on anonymous accounts and accounts in fictitious names; lack of risk-based identification mechanism for customers predating 2001 (or 1994 for bank deposit accounts)</li> <li>• Identification threshold too high for customers performing wire transfers</li> <li>• Legal uncertainties about the identification threshold for occasional customers</li> <li>• Absence of an identification requirement, independent of the threshold, when there is a suspicion of money laundering or terrorist financing</li> <li>• Absence of requirements to identify and verify the identity of beneficial owners and to understand the way in which the ownership and control of a legal person are organized</li> <li>• Absence of a requirement to collect information on the purpose and nature of the business relationship, and to ensure due diligence (including the updating of identification data)</li> <li>• Absence of a requirement of enhanced diligence for high risks</li> <li>• Lack of objective data on the effectiveness of the requirements of due diligence</li> </ul>	i. Strengthen the banks on anonymous accounts and accounts in fictitious names ii. Lower the customer identification threshold for wire transfers to US$1,000 iii. Clarify the legal identification threshold for occasional transactions in forms consistent with the anti-money laundering law of 2001 iv. Clarify the customer identification requirement in occasional transactions, independent of the threshold, when there is a suspicion of money laundering or terrorist financing v. Institute a requirement to identify and to verify the identity of beneficial owners, based in particular on a requirement that financial institutions understand the way in which ownership and control of a legal person are organized vi. Establish a requirement to collect information on the purpose and nature of the business relationship and to update identification data on a regular basis vii. Implement a risk management approach for the highest risks	This recommendation is addressed in the Bill on Money Laundering and Financing of Terrorism. This Bill was voted by the Senate on February 28th, 2013 and had been twice submitted to the general assembly of the Lower Chamber. Yet, the bill is still pending for vote. Already done This recommendation is addressed in the Bill on Money Laundering and Financing of Terrorism. 			i. Based on a risk analysis, consider adopting flexible requirements for demonstrably low risks k. Set in place a risk-based customer identification mechanism for business relationships predating 2001, in connection with a stronger and more direct requirement regarding anonymous accounts and accounts in fictitious names	This recommendation is addressed in the Bill on Money Laundering and Financing of Terrorism. This Bill was voted by the Senate on February 28th, 2013 and had been twice submitted to the general assembly of the Lower Chamber. Yet, the bill is still pending for vote. Already Done
6. Politically exposed persons	NC	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Absence of a requirement of enhanced diligence toward foreign politically exposed persons</li> </ul>	i. Institute requirements of enhanced diligence toward politically exposed persons	This recommendation is addressed in the Bill on Money Laundering and Financing of Terrorism. This Bill was voted by the Senate on February 28th, 2013 and had been twice submitted to the general assembly of the Lower Chamber. Yet, the bill is still pending for vote.
7. Correspondent banking	NC	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Absence of requirements pertaining to the establishment of correspondent banking or equivalent relationships</li> </ul>	i. Institute specific and enhanced requirements for establishing correspondent banking or equivalent relationships	This recommendation is addressed in the Bill on Money Laundering and Financing of Terrorism. This Bill was voted by the Senate on February 28th, 2013 and had been twice submitted to the general assembly of the Lower Chamber. Yet, the bill is still pending for vote.
8. New technologies and non face-to-face business	NC	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Absence of requirements pertaining to business relationships conducted at a distance or risks associated with new technologies</li> </ul>	i. Institute requirements proportional to risk for business relationships conducted at a distance and with no face-to-face contact	Partially Done
9. Third parties and business introducers	NC	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Absence of obligations on the part of intermediaries and business introducers; lack of certainty regarding the ultimate responsibility of the financial institution to meet the requirements of due diligence.</li> </ul>	i. Clarify the requirements of due diligence in situations where a financial institution provides a role to third parties or business introducers, specifically by indicating the conditions (regarding obligations to fight money laundering) that must be met by the intermediary and by affirming the principle that responsibility for the customer identification process always falls to the financial institution	This recommendation is addressed in the Bill on Money Laundering and Financing of Terrorism. This Bill was voted by the Senate on February 28th, 2013 and had been twice submitted to the general assembly of the Lower Chamber. Yet the bill is still pending for vote.

10. Record keeping	LC	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Lack of a legal basis for authorities to request an extension of the length of time that records must be held</li> <li>Lack of objective data on the effectiveness of the system in place, and delays in transmitting records</li> </ul>	i. Ensure that it is possible for competent authorities to request an extension of the length of time that records must be held.	This recommendation is addressed in the Bill on Money Laundering and Financing of Terrorism. This Bill was voted by the Senate on February 28th, 2013 and had been twice submitted to the general assembly of the Lower Chamber. Yet the bill is still pending for vote.
11. Unusual transactions	LC	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Existence of a (monetary) threshold that triggers requirements for unusual or complex transactions</li> <li>Uncertain implementation of the requirements</li> </ul>	i. Revise the requirements pertaining to unusual and complex transactions to eliminate the threshold of 200,000 gourdes, below which there is no requirement at present.	This recommendation is addressed in the draft law on money laundering and terrorist financing. This Bill was voted by the Senate on February 28th, 2013 and had been twice submitted to the general assembly of the Lower Chamber. Yet the bill is still pending for vote.
12. Designated non-financial businesses and professions – R.5, 6, 8-11	NC	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Absence of coverage, under the mechanism to fight money laundering and terrorist financing, of many of the designated non-financial businesses and professions, and (except for casinos) identification of activities that are covered, and not of professions that are covered for a given range of activities.</li> <li>Absence of enforcement of existing legal provisions for non-financial businesses and professions covered by the law. Absence of awareness-raising efforts and lack of monitoring of the enforcement of prevention and detection obligations for casinos and real estate transactions.</li> </ul>	i. Expand the anti-money laundering and anti-terrorist financing obligations to include other designated non-financial businesses and professions, especially notaries, accountants, independent legal professionals, lawyers, traders of precious metals and stones, art dealers – for all the activities listed by FATF (for each of these professions). Consideration should be given, based on an analysis of the gravity of money laundering risks, to the possibility of including other non-financial professionals, such as traders of assets of value (luxury automobiles in particular). ii. Enforce the obligations already stipulated by law for casinos and real estate transactions, specifically through a major effort to mobilize and train the professionals involved.	1. This recommendation is addressed in the Bill on Money Laundering and Financing of Terrorism. This Bill was voted by the Senate on February 28th, 2013 and had been twice submitted to the general assembly of the Lower Chamber. Yet, the bill is still pending for vote.  2. The obligations for casinos and real estate entities stipulated in the law on money laundering (2001) have been reinforced in the new draft law.  3. Pending the vote and enactment of the Bill on Money laundering and terrorist financing, the reading of the article 2.1.1 of the Act of February 2001 seems to indirectly encompass the non-financial business and professions. Incidentally, the CNLBA, jointly with the public notaries syndicate, has conducted awareness campaign around the country.
13. Suspicious transaction reporting	NC	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Absence of suspicious transaction reporting regarding terrorist financing</li> <li>Virtual absence of implementation of the system of suspicious transaction reporting by financial institutions</li> </ul>	i. Expand the scope of suspicious transaction reporting to include terrorism and its financing	This recommendation is addressed in the Bill on Money Laundering and Financing of Terrorism. This Bill was voted by the Senate on February 28th, 2013 and had been twice submitted to the general assembly of the Lower Chamber. Yet the bill is still pending for vote.

			i. Make all persons covered by the 2001 law aware of suspicious transaction reporting and automatic transaction reporting	Progress has been made since the last assessment. UCREF organized on 21st of February and 6th of August 2013 forums with compliance officers from the banks and others financial institutions such as credit union and money transfer companies. Awareness sessions were also organized jointly by the public notaries syndicate and CNLBA on the following dates: May 24th, 2013 and July 27th, 2013. Central Bank conducted a training, from the date of 22nd to 24th of July 2013.
14. Protection and no tipping-off	C
15. Internal controls and compliance	PC	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Lack of information regarding internal control obligations, both general and specific to anti-money laundering efforts, on the following points: access to customer information by compliance auditors; capacity of internal auditors to undertake verification of samples; verification of staff backgrounds prior to recruitment; minimum content of compulsory training</li> </ul>	i. Clarify internal control obligations, based on the 2001 law and the circular on internal controls, especially as regards: access to customer information by compliance auditors; capacity of internal auditors to undertake verification of samples; verification of staff backgrounds prior to recruitment; minimum content of compulsory training. ii. Adopt stronger administrative sanctions as a way to enhance the effectiveness of internal control obligations.	1. Already Done by Circular (Central Bank) 2. Already Done By Law on Banks and financial institutions
16. Designated non-financial businesses and professions – R.13-15 & 21	NC	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Weaknesses of the suspicious transaction reporting mechanism (cf. Recommendation 13)</li> <li>Overly restrictive coverage of designated non-financial businesses and professions</li> <li>Absence of suspicious transaction reporting by non-financial professions</li> </ul>	i. Make sure that non-financial businesses covered by the anti-money laundering law meet their obligations with respect to detecting and reporting suspicious transactions. In addition, they should expand the suspicious transaction reporting obligation to include all designated non-financial businesses and professions	This recommendation is addressed in the Bill on Money Laundering and Financing of Terrorism. This Bill was voted by the Senate on February 28th, 2013 and had been twice submitted to the general assembly of the Lower Chamber. Yet, the bill is still pending for vote.

		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Absence of enforcement of existing legal provisions</li> </ul>
17. Sanctions	NC	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Absence of a dissuasive, proportionate, and effective system of sanctions</li> <li>Lack of implementation of the current system of sanctions</li> </ul>	i. Revise the system of sanctions for breaches of anti-money laundering and anti-terrorist financing obligations, particularly by (a) rebalancing criminal and administrative sanctions and (b) establishing a wider scale of (administrative) sanctions and a broader definition of breaches triggering these sanctions; ii. Adopt a more proactive approach in supervising these obligations, especially in the case of non-bank financial institutions.	This recommendation is addressed in the Bill on Money Laundering and Financing of Terrorism. This Bill was voted by the Senate on February 28th, 2013 and had been twice submitted to the general assembly of the Lower Chamber. Yet, the bill is still pending for vote.
18. Shell banks	PC	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Absence of any obligation for Haitian financial institutions to ascertain that their correspondent banks are not shell banks and that their correspondent banks do not allow shell banks to use their correspondent accounts</li> </ul>	i. Require Haitian financial institutions to ascertain that their correspondent banks are not shell banks and that their correspondent banks do not allow shell banks to use their correspondent accounts	This recommendation is addressed in the Bill on Money Laundering and Financing of Terrorism. This Bill was voted by the Senate on February 28th, 2013 and had been twice submitted to the general assembly of the Lower Chamber. Yet, the bill is still pending for vote.
19. Other forms of reporting	LC	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>No access to the computerized database by authorities other than UCREF</li> </ul>	i. Provide for access to the UCREF data base for other authorities involved in the fight against money laundering and terrorist financing	Already done
20. Other non-financial businesses and professions and secure transaction techniques	NC	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Absence of attention given to expanding the anti-money laundering and anti-terrorist financing system to include non-financial businesses and professions based on the specific risk level in Haiti</li> <li>Ineffective mechanisms for promoting the use of other payment instruments besides cash</li> </ul>	i. Consider expanding (based on risk) the anti-money laundering and anti-terrorist financing system to include other non-financial businesses and professions (cf. also the recommendation under Recommendation 12) ii. Review the provisions aimed at promoting the use of other payment instruments besides cash, in view of the present ineffectiveness of such provisions	This recommendation was taken into account in the draft law on money laundering and terrorist financing. This Bill was voted by the Senate on February 28th, 2013 and had been twice submitted to the general assembly of the Lower Chamber. Yet, the bill is still pending for vote.
21. Special attention for higher risk countries	NC	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Absence of a legal framework and operational mechanism enabling Haiti to guard against countries with weak systems for combating money laundering</li> </ul>	i. Develop mechanisms to inform financial institutions about the shortcomings of certain systems to combat money laundering and terrorist financing, as well as a legal framework that will enable them to enforce countermeasures against countries that	This recommendation is addressed by note issued by Central Bank. This recommendation is also taken into account in the draft law on money laundering and terrorist financing.

			continue to not adequately implement the FATF Recommendations
22. Foreign branches and subsidiaries	NC	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Absence of obligations aimed at foreign branches and subsidiaries of Haitian financial institutions, relative to their capacity to implement satisfactory measures to fight money laundering and terrorist financing</li> </ul>	i. Establish obligations aimed at the foreign branches and subsidiaries of Haitian financial institutions, relative to their capacity to implement satisfactory anti-money laundering mechanisms in their host country.	This recommendation is taken into account in the draft law on money laundering and terrorist financing.
23. Regulation, supervision, and monitoring	NC	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Absence of requirements of integrity and competence for many pillars of the financial sector, particularly money changers, insurance companies, and microfinance institutions</li> <li>Absence of coverage of beneficial owners under the obligations of integrity and competence for the banking sector and savings and loan cooperatives</li> <li>Existence of an unregulated, informal sector of money/value transfer services</li> </ul>	i. Strengthen the obligations of integrity and competence for the entire financial sector and for beneficial owners, business introducers, shareholders, and senior officials of financial institutions, by incorporating, in particular, professional disqualification in the event of a conviction for money laundering or terrorist financing;	Already Done
24. Designated non-financial businesses and professions – regulation, supervision, and monitoring	NC	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Inadequate framework of supervision for non-financial businesses and professions</li> <li>Lack of monitoring and oversight of legal obligations of non-financial professions at present covered by the mechanism</li> </ul>	i. Set in place the necessary mechanisms to ensure the execution of obligations related to money laundering prevention by non-financial professions, especially casinos, and provide oversight of proper implementation of these mechanisms.	Changes have been made in the bill on money laundering and terrorist financing. This Bill was voted by the Senate on February 28th, 2013 and had been twice submitted to the general assembly of the Lower Chamber. Yet the bill is still pending for vote.
25. Guidelines and feedback	NC	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>BRH guidelines not widely distributed and not well known to the financial professions; no feedback from UCREF to the financial professions</li> <li>Absence of guidelines issued for the entire financial sector</li> <li>Absence of guidelines for designated non-financial businesses and professions</li> <li>Absence of any mechanism for feedback from UCREF (DNFPBs)</li> </ul>	i. Provide information to, and raise the awareness of, financial and non-financial entities subject to the legal obligations of the anti-money laundering law, by issuing guidelines and particularly money laundering typologies, so as to enable these entities to fulfill their obligations under optimal conditions. Similarly, strengthen the training of private and public actors involved in preventing and cracking down on money laundering ii.	Done
INSTITUTIONAL AND OTHER MEASURES

26. Financial Intelligence Unit	PC	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Ambiguities (especially in practice) as regards the operational independence and autonomy of UCREF</li> <li>• Lack of mobilization of all professions subject to the law</li> <li>• Absence of status reports and reliable statistics</li> <li>• Ambiguity in the practices followed for exchanging information with foreign authorities</li> <li>• Absence of a policy on employee integrity and appropriate training</li> <li>• Ineffectiveness of the Financial Intelligence Unit due to its atypical functioning, pursuant to a broad interpretation of its legal framework</li> </ul>	i. Clearly redefine UCREF's scope of action in line with the anti-money laundering law of 2001 ii. Build awareness on the part of professions subject to the suspicious transaction reporting requirement iii. Ensure that UCREF exchanges information only with persons authorized to receive same (foreign counterparts) iv. Reinforce UCREF's operational independence in relation to CNLBA and establish real functional autonomy in relation to BRH v. Charge UCREF with publishing a periodic status report vi. Bring Haitian law in line with the conditions required for membership in the Egmont Group	Indeed, since 2008, some major administrative changes have been made as shown: the appointment of a new Managing Director at the end of the mandate of previous director; the reorganization of UCREF at organizational level; reinforcement of staff (hiring new analysts); improvement of institutional relations with the financial institutions; operational independence towards the central bank; complete takeover of the staff. Meetings have been organized between the administration of UCREF and the compliance officers on this matter. Most recently, a forum was held on the date of 6th of August 2013 as to address issues about transactions reports (CTRs and STRs). In terms of measures taken to ensure that UCREF shares information with authorized persons, the CNLBA conducts a scrutiny of the activities of UCREF based on the law. In fact, UCREF submits to the committee periodic reports which show the details of the activities of the Unit. The CNLBA also ensures that information is shared with authorized bodies in compliance with the law and the MOUs. Already Done Already done UCREF actually edits report on a quarterly basis. This recommendation is addressed in the Bill on Money Laundering and Financing of Terrorism.
